

Market Range Detail - Procurement Consultant (County)

Effective Date

March 17, 2010

Market Range Title Description

This is a single incumbent position responsible for providing expertise to the Director – Materials Management on the most complex and sensitive procurement issues and negotiations. Typical job duties include: providing expertise to departments and County management; leading special projects and studies; researching sensitive and complex procurement issues; implementing new County policies, procedures, programs; conducting the most complex contract negotiations; researching procurement trends and business practices; providing recommendations to the Director on complex and sensitive matters; analyzing operational data. The Strategic Procurement Consultant – County reports to the Director – Materials Management.

Market Range

Minimum Hourly Rate	Midpoint / Hiring Maximum	Maximum Hourly Rate
$33.51	$43.30	$53.08

Likely Minimum Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in purchasing, supply chain or materials management, business administration or related field.
- 5 years of professional procurement experience.
- Certified purchasing manager (CPM); certified professional public buyer (CPPB); or certified public procurement officer (CPPO) credentials.
- Master's degree in purchasing, business administration, public administration, or related field preferred.
- Other combinations of education and experience may be considered in substitution for the minimum qualifications

Working Titles

- Strategic Procurement Consultant

Glossary:

Market Range Title: Broad grouping of related positions with like job responsibilities and qualifications. Market Range Titles typically include positions ranging from entry level to senior/lead level unless indicated otherwise.

Effective date: The date the salary range was implemented for use.

Market Range Title Description: Broad description of sample job duties and responsibilities of positions included in the Market Range Title. Each position included in a Market Range Title also has a job description that is specific to the department. Departments are responsible for writing and maintaining job descriptions for positions in their department. Employee Compensation is responsible for writing and maintaining Market Range Title Descriptions.

Likely Minimum Qualifications: Typical minimum qualifications for positions assigned to the Market Range Title. Because a broad group of jobs in different departments are included in a Market Range Title, minimum and preferred qualifications may vary slightly depending on the area of assignment.

Market Range: The minimum, midpoint, and maximum salary points for all positions included in the Market Range Title.

Hiring Range: The hiring range for all positions is ordinarily the minimum of the market range to the midpoint. The use of a different hiring range must be approved by Employee Compensation. Departments should use a hiring range that is within their funding capabilities and are required to comply with the County's Funded Position Policy ensuring that applicants are extended a rate that is supported by the department's budget.

Working Title: The specific title used by a department to identify a position within their organizational structure. Use of working titles is flexible and aimed to assist departments in identifying the unique functions and responsibilities of each position and is representative of the assigned Market Range Title. Ordinarily, supervisory and/or managerial titles should not be used for positions not assigned to a supervisory and/or manager Market Range Title.